

I want the no call list to remain as it is. I find it very annoying to have telemarketers calling me at all home to try and sell me some snake oil product. I find it especially disgusting to get a call from a telemarketer and have them not even pick up the phone because they had someone else pick up before me. They are a curse.